

In May 2006, soon after the publication of this report, Jack M. Gorman, MD, resigned as McLean's president and psychiatrist in chief. A process to select his replacement is underway.